NO: 260, July 27, 6 p.m.

Reference Department's telegram 226, July 24, FCN reservation.

Note transmitted Foreign Office today at its urgent request since note and proposed reply now in preparation scheduled Cabinte consideration July 28. Foreign Office hopes both may be submitted Diet following day to expedite ratification prior adjournment. Representatives Foreign Office state informally Senate reservation acceptable in principle although not (repeat not) entirely mutual since only port pilots and notaries reserved under Japanese law. Although parallel reservation still under consideration, appears likely decision will be include in Japanese reply statement of interpretation permitting retaliatory action against residents those states restricting right Japanese practice professions. Phraseology Japanese note may be based on that included protocol paragraph 4. Foreign Office has offered deliver Embassy advance copy reply soonest after Cabinet approval, with view seeking earliest possible concurrence Department.
